Let's think!

Smartphones and social media (SNS) have become very popular. Is this good or bad? Why?

I think it's .	that sn	that smartphones and social media have become popular because addicting	application(s)	convenient	dangerous	helpful	important

I think it's good that smartphones and social media have become popular because I can talk to my family easily. If I didn't have a smartphone, I could only use email or send letters. Talking to my family is very important to me, and smartphones make it very easy.
