“I agree that country life is better than city life, because of the fun activities and the beautiful views.

First, I will discuss the fun activities. You can have fun outside in the country. According to an American scientific report, people spend more time outside in the country. People can have fun outside, without spending money.

Second, the beautiful views. You can see many beautiful views in the countryside, such as fields, forests and flowers. In the city, you cannot see these natural areas.

Thank you for listening!”
